A great big THANK YOU for the donations for our local family in need for Christmas. We have made a significant difference in this family's life and it is greatly appreciated!!

The mitten trees are set up in the back of the church, all items will be donated to the local elementary schools.

We will NOT be having our monthly bake sale for January because it lands on New Year's Day. However, there will still be coffee hour.

Looking for volunteers to drive a parishioner to Alpena for cancer treatments. She will need to be picked up at 8:30am (can meet at church) and it last about 15 minutes. Please Call Michele @ 785-6522. Thank you in advance!!

"Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness"

- Psalms 65:11

Invisible, Incomprehensible, Incorporeal, Immortal

The very Son of God, older than the ages, the invisible, the incomprehensible, the incorporeal, the beginning of beginning, the light or light, the fountain of life and immortality, the image of the archetype, the immovable seal, the perfect likeness, the definition and word of the Father: he it is who comes to his own image and takes our nature for the good of our nature, and unites himself to an intelligent soul for the good of my soul, to purify like by like.

He takes to himself all that is human, except for sin. He was conceived by the Virgin Mary, who had been first prepared in soul and body by the Spirit; his coming to birth had to be treated with honor, virginity had to receive new honor. He comes forth as God, in the human nature he has taken, one being, made of two contrary elements, flesh and spirit. Spirit gave divinity, flesh received it.

He who makes rich is made poor; he takes on the poverty of my flesh, that I may gain the riches of his divinity. He who is full is made empty; he is emptied for a brief space of his glory that I may share in his fullness. He takes on my flesh, to bring salvation to the image, immortality to the flesh. He enters into a second union with us, a union far more wonderful than the first.

Holiness had to be brought to man by the humanity assumed by one who was God, so that God might overcome the tyrant by force and so deliver us and lead us back to himself through the mediation of his Son. The Son arranged this for the honor of the Father, to whom the Son is clearly obedient in all things.

The Good Shepherd, who lays down his life for the sheep, came in search of the straying sheep to the mountains and hills on which you used to offer sacrifice. When he found it, he took it on the shoulders that bore the wood of the cross, and led it back to the life of heaven.

Christ, the light of all lights, follows John, the lamp that goes before him. The Word of God follows the bridegroom's friend, who prepares a worthy people for the Lord by cleansing them by water in preparation for the Spirit. We need God to take our flesh and die that we might live.

Saint Gregory Nazianzen, bishop
 Who can comprehend the depth of the wisdom of God or the depth of his Love for us? Before time began, he planned to send his Son to us. A Son who would give us all of himself for us. Are we willing to give our total obedience to God?
