After Christmas, the Cross!

Awake, mankind! For your sake God has become man. Awake, you who sleep, rise up from the dead, and Christ will enlighten you. I tell you again: for your sake, God became man.

You would have suffered eternal death, had he not been born in time. Never would you have been freed from sinful flesh, had he not taken on himself the likeness of sinful flesh. You would have suffered everlasting unhappiness, had it not been for this mercy. You would never have returned to life, had he not shared your death. You would have been lost if he had not hastened to your aid. You would have perished, had he not come.

Let us then joyfully celebrate the coming of our salvation and redemption. Let us then rejoice in this grace, so that our glorying may bear witness to our good conscience by which we glory, not in ourselves, but in the Lord. For what greater grace could God have made to dawn on us than to make his only Son become the son of man, so that a son of man might in his turn become son of God? (St. Augustine)

And you mankind, have you decided to give your all for God? Let's ask ourselves some tough questions:

- ✓ What steps have I taken to Know Him, Love Him, and Serve Him?
- ✓ Have I begun reading the Bible?
- ✓ Am I enrolling in study classes or retreats to increase my knowledge of God?
- ✓ What new things have I learned about God? My relationship to Him?
- ✓ Have I made a resolution to go to confession more frequently, or every three weeks?
- ✓ Have I looked in the Catechism, especially the chapter on "The Sacraments of Healing?"
- ✓ Have I gained a more loving attitude toward family, friends, and strangers or aliens.
- ✓ Have I developed an "attitude of gratitude" toward God?
- ✓ Am I giving myself, my loving nature to those most in need of someone to care
- ✓ Have I become more responsible with my finances? Am I budgeting so I can tithe, and the siding campaign, and support CSA, or other charities?
- ✓ Am I giving a tithe of my time or talent to the Church?

These are important questions to ask ourselves as we leave the feeling of Christmas with the baby in the manger and the softness of that love. In a few short weeks we will be at Ash Wednesday, and a reminder of our mortality. Jesus has grown into the savior, teaching us how to live before he dies. Are we following His footsteps, or following the status quo?
