That All Men Should Be Saved

In His desire that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, God spoke in former times to our forefathers through the prophets, on many occasions and in different ways. Then, in the fullness of time He sent His Son, the word made man, anointed by the Holy Spirit, to bring good news to the poor, to heal the broken-hearted as the physician of body and spirit and the mediator between God and men. In the unity of the person of the Word, His human nature was the instrument of our salvation. Thus, in Christ there has come to be the perfect atonement that reconciles us with God, and we have been given the power to offer the fullness of divine worship.

This work of man's redemption and God's perfect glory was foreshadowed by God's mighty deeds among the people of the Old Covenant. It was brought to fulfillment by Christ the Lord: by dying He destroyed our death, and by rising again He restored our life. From His side, as He lay asleep on the cross, was born that wonderful sacrament which is the Church in its entirety.

As Christ was sent by the Father, so in His turn He sent the apostles, filled with the Holy Spirit. They were sent to preach the Gospel to every creature, proclaiming that we had been set free from the power of Satan and from death by the death and resurrection of God's Son, and brought into the kingdom of the Father. They were sent also to bring into effect this saving work that they proclaimed, by means of the sacrifice and sacraments that are the pivot of the whole life of the liturgy.

So, by baptism- dead with Christ, buried with Christ, risen with Christ, they receive the Spirit that makes them God's adopted children, crying out: Abba. Father; and so, they become the true adorers that the Father seeks.

In the same way, whenever they eat the supper of the Lord, they proclaim His death until He comes. So, on the very day of Pentecost, those who received the word of Peter were baptized. They remained steadfast in the teaching of the apostles and in the communion of the breaking of bread, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people.

From that time onward the Church has never failed to come together to celebrate the paschal mystery, by reading what was written about Him in every part of Scripture, by celebrating the eucharist in which the victory and triumph of His death are shown forth, and by giving thanks to God for the inexpressible gift He has given in Christ Jesus, to the praise of God's glory. (from The Second Vatican Council)

Dear Parishioners,

Please join us the weekend of April 27 & 28, 2024 to hear Rev. Robert W. Vujs speak at all services about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Father Vujs will share personal witness about Food for the Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Fr. Vujs was ordained on 6/10/1961 for the Maryknolls. Before joining Food for the Poor Fr. Bob served over 40 years in Africa.

Please join in welcoming Father Vujs!
