God's Radiation Therapy – By Fr. George Kosicki

Eucharist as Presence

One word, one reality stands out for me about the Holy Eucharist and that is Presence. This presence is not a what, nor a thing but a Person: Jesus Christ, the word of God made flesh and now dwelling among us. Jesus Christ as the Holy Eucharist is a real presence. Consider the following statement carefully: Jesus Christ is not in the Eucharist rather He is the Eucharist. Jesus, Himself made His presence very clear when He took bread and said: “This is my Body.” then taking a cup of wine said “This is My Blood...” (see Mt 26:26-28). If we should deny His presence — then we call Jesus a liar! The Eucharistic presence of Jesus is a real presence, a sacramental presence only veiled by the appearance of bread and wine. What a marvelous mystery that Jesus gives Himself as food and drink for our eternal life in a manner that reveals His love for us and does not threaten us by the sight of flesh and blood! He reveals His love for the many by multiplying His Body and Blood so that all the faithful may eat His Flesh and Drink His Blood as He commanded (see John 6). I love to play with words, so I will reflect on the word “presence” as a key to understanding something of the mystery of the Holy Eucharist. The reality of the presence of Jesus as the Eucharist is a KEY to opening up other 18 dimensions of the Holy Eucharist. So let us “play” with the word presence. The Holy Eucharist calls us to be present to the ONE: Who is present here and now, who is presence itself; Who is a present — all gift to us. The celebration of the Holy Eucharist, the Mass makes the past of the sacrifice of Calvary, the Resurrection of Easter, and the future of the Heavenly Banquet of the Bridegroom — all present — to the here and now in the eternal now of the Holy Spirit (see Heb 9:14). God is not in space-timing as we are all is present to Him now. • This presence of Jesus who is the baptizer in the Holy Spirit and the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world (see John 1:20 and 33). calls us: • This Jesus calls us to Communion with Himself; into a common- union-in-Christ. • This Jesus calls us to believe — to TRUST in Him, to hope in Him and to Love Him. • This Jesus calls us to praise, worship and adoration. • This Jesus calls us to Thanksgiving (The word in Greek for Thanksgiving is the root of the word Eucharist). • This Jesus calls us to Transformation to eternal life! • This Jesus calls us to come to Him (Mt 11:28). • This Jesus calls us to service. “The Son of man did not come to be served but to serve and give his life for many (Mk 10:45). • This Jesus calls us to battle; to stand firm in our faith even in persecution. A mnemonic for “battle” can help us to respond to the call of Jesus and the challenge of the angel of Portugal to the children of Fatima: “Pray for souls”: Believe for those who do not believe. Adore for those who do not adore. True for those who do not trust. Thank for those who do not thank. Love for those who do not love, Eucharistically for those who do not live Eucharistically. Jesus invites us and calls out to you and me: “Be present to Me as I am to you. Be a living Eucharist! Be a presence of Me to the world.”
