God’s Radiation Therapy – By Fr. George Kosicki

Eucharist As Sacrifice

The Lord Jesus came among us to share in all our miseries and humani- ty. By His love, He transformed suffering into sacrifice, bringing salvation to all of us. Now He invites you and me to unite our sufferings with His, with even the little love we can muster up, to be a sacrifice bringing His salvation to those in need. He invites all of us to be partners in His continued work of redemption. The most effective way we can unite our sufferings with the sacrifice of Christ is through the Eucharist, which Christ left us, to remain with us. Church teaching has been consistent that the Eucharist is a sacrifice and we are to offer ourselves along with the Immaculate victim: At the Last Supper, on the night when He was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic Sacrifice of His Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the centuries until He should come again, and so to entrust to His beloved spouse, the Church, a memorial of His death and resurrection Christ’s faithful should be instructed by God’s word and be refreshed at the table of the Lord’s Body; they should give 29 thanks to God; by offering the Immaculate Victim, not only through the hands of the priest, but also with Him, they should learn to offer themselves too (Sacrosanctum Concilium, #47, 48) The teaching about offering our own selves along with the Immaculate Victim is made even more explicit in the main document of Vatican II, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, which spells out the many aspects of our lives we should offer, exercising our baptismal priesthood: [As for the lay faithful,] ... all their works, prayers, and apostolic endeavors, their ordinary married and family life, their daily labor, their mental and physical relaxation, if carried out in the spirit, and even the hardships of life, if patiently borne — all of these become spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Christ Jesus (see 1 Pt. 2:5). During the celebration of the Eucharist, these sacrifices are most lovingly offered to the Father along with the Lord’s Body. thus, as worshippers whose every deed is holy, laity consecrate the world itself to God. (Lumen Gentium, #34). The lay faithful “consecrate the world to the Father!’ The people of God really are a priestly people. The ordained, ministerial priest consecrates the bread and wine to be the Body and Blood of Christ and the lay faithful, by 30 means of the presence of the Eucharistic Body and Blood of Christ, now con- secrete the world — and their lives, their families, their works and possessions. The lay faithful transform the world, that all may be divinized in Christ. The lay faithful are charged with “living” the Eucharistic sacrifice so that Christ may be all in all. The Council Fathers conclude Section #48 of Sacrosanctum Concilium, quoted above, with this sweeping picture of the daily transformation of the world: Through Christ the Mediator, [the Christian laity] should be drawn day by bay into even closer union with God and with each other, so that finally God may be all in all. (ibid., 48). This means in practice that every one of our actions and desires, pains and joys, disappointments and hopes, loves and frustrations — all that we are, all that we do and think, all that we have — everything can be offered in — “spiritual sacrifice” (Rom 12:1) in union with the Eucharist sacrifice for the sake of others. Your pain and joy is precious, don’t waste it! Offer it! Offer it for the members of your family, for families of the whole church and world in order that in Christ we may be one family, one Body of Christ to the glory of God the Father. The making of “spiritual sacrifices” is always possible for us because the 31 Eucharistic sacrifice is being offered continuously around the world. As an approximate calculation, consider that over 420,000 priests in the world offer over 300 Masses each per year — if calculated for the average number of Masses being offered at any given time (considering the Roman Mass lasts a half-hour), there are 8 to 10 thousand Masses being offered at this present moment around the world! For from the rising of the sun, even to its setting, my name is great among the nations; and everywhere they bring sacrifice to my name and a pure offering.

Happy Hunting Season!
Good Luck and Stay Safe!

Lord of all creation,

Thank You for the beauty of the earth and the bounty it provides. As we hunt, may we be mindful of the balance of nature and the responsibility we carry. Help us to hunt with respect and humility, giving thanks for the sustenance You provide.

Amen.

The Council of Catholic Women and the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a food drive to restock the St. Augustine Food Pantry. Parishioners are asked to take a grocery bag and return it to the church next Sunday or any day most convenient for you.

Bags can be placed by the confessionals.

The drive will run from Nov. 1st – Nov. 30th.

Thank you for your past and present support of this charitable program!
